Dr. Alpar Fodor, age 56, chemist, university doctor in spectroscopy, in the past: technologist, researcher, assoc. professor, marketing manager. Together with my wife we were working 13 years in MLM business, but we are convinced that in Nu Skin we found the business we have waited all that years. I am the active member of our team, moving all around the country, making presentation, and I am focused on scientific side of the Pharmanex, being in the same time a specialist in nutrition.(180 cm, 78 kg). I am fascinated by online marketing and we've decided to have a global business. Contact me:
